Hi, I'm Müller,
I'm a System Analyst / Developer.

I graduated in Systems Analysis and Development in 2018, at Estácio de Sá University.
I'm currently studying for a postgraduate course in Software Architecture, at College Serra Geral.
But I work with website and web systems development since 2006. I've worked with technologies such as:
Classic ASP, C#, PHP, Laravel and now I'm specializing in Python, using Django framework.
I have knowledge in HTML and CSS, as well as PostgreSQL and MySQL databases.
